

Sabe Tibbitts

Sabe Tibbitts has a wide business background in businesses as diverse as telecommunications (BT), security (Bradbury Wilkinson), packaging (Bormioli – Italy) and FMCG (Proctor and Gamble).

Since joining UK Trade and Investment - the official export development organisation of UK government she has been a regular speaker at international events on the opportunities in emerging South Asian markets.

Sabe Tibbitts advises FTSE 100 and other UK companies wishing to develop business in India and is on the board of a branding company with India multinational contracts.

Previously:

- Sabe Tibbitts was director of the international development for Kingfisher, key brand of United Breweries food and drinks conglomerate in India.
- Established a manufacturing and marketing joint venture with Shepherd Neame one of the UK's leading brewers
- Set up country network for Bradbury Wilkinson for central bank security products: Europe, Middle East, Africa
- Managed sourcing for Boots in Germany, Italy and France
- Established telecoms US joint venture with GPT

PERSONAL DETAILS:

- University of London (SOAS): BA (Hons) Hindi & Bengali
- University of East London: MBA
- Henley Management College: GMC
- London South Bank University: Postgraduate Diploma in Regeneration Studies (current)
- Languages: German, Hindi, Bengali, Italian, French